Dear Membership Officer,

FFS and JFC, I've already responded to this survey!

Could it be that the email address for the Google account I used to fill out the Google form differs from the email address to which you sent the email?

I'm impressed that you've managed to spell anonymous correctly this time!

I'm unimpressed that you're still amateurishly/unprofessionally using a naked URL as a link to the survey rather than anchoring it to some text/image, and including an image that says:

Please return your survey by the 31st of October.

Cheers,
Julian
